EDITOR'S NOTE

This work was prepared in 1972 by M. John McDaniel and has not been updated since that date.

When reading this work the name that appears in bold italic at the beginning of each listing is, to the best of our knowledge, the accurate spelling of the name as the individual signed his own name. For example, on page 11 you will see Brittain, James. The listings following his name were spelled by the State in their publications Britan and Britton. In the town records we found papers with it spelled Britton and Britain. The actual receipt in the town records was signed by him Brittain. Therefore, we have assumed that at least he must know how his name should be spelled and have used his version of it.

As you go through this booklet you will see multiple listings under the same name. Our research shows they were all one and the same person. The Commonwealth when preparing their book from which the basic material was taken did not cross reference and listed each individual spelling as a different person. A comparison of dates referred to and a check of town records clearly show these individuals to be one and the same.

It should be noted that not all individuals listed are from Southborough, but some, such as Amsden, Joel, page 1, served in a Southborough Company and others such as Biglow, John, page 7, enlisted for the town of Southborough.

INTRODUCTION

This pamphlet has been prepared by John McDaniel and is based on research done by Roger Maconi and John McDaniel for the Historic Research Committee of the Southborough Companies of Militia and Minute. It is intended as a starting point for additional research aimed at determining who fought for Southborough, either as a resident or a non-resident enlisted for the town, during the Revolutionary War. This pamphlet is likely to include people who did not fight for Southborough as well as those too old or too young for the war. These names should be omitted in future revisions to this pamphlet. Additional research is likely to yield additional names to be added to this list.

Sources of information used in the preparation of this pamphlet are identified under the heading of "References." These were the only sources used. Possibly the next logical step in researching this subject is the utilization of the following sources and resources:

The SOUTHBOROUGH, MASS. VITAL RECORDS TO 1850 should be consulted to verify the spelling of names. Family names of the Revolutionary War period could also be checked against the SOLDIERS AND SAILORS reference books to pick up people that may have been overlooked in the preparation of this pamphlet.

The Town Treasurer's Records of the period have not been examined. They may contain additional bounty contracts and receipts.

The Southborough Historical Commission and other members of the Historic Research Committee of the Southborough Companies of Militia and Minute have not yet been consulted and should be an additional source of soldier's names.

The original of this pamphlet is in the possession of the Historic Research Committee of the Southborough Companies of Militia and Minute.

REFERENCES

All printed data was copied from Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the War of the Revolution, A Compilation from the Archives, Prepared and Published by the Secretary of the Commonwealth in Accordance with Chapter 100, Resolves of 1891. This seventeen volume set of books were printed in 1896. They are available at the Marlborough Public Library.

R01 refers to a typewritten pamphlet, Men Who Fought in the American Revolution from Marlborough, Southborough, Northborough, Massachusetts written by Mrs. George M. Moore and not dated. Mrs. Moore claims that her only reference in identifying the Southborough soldiers was the Soldiers and Sailors book referenced above. The pamphlet is available at the Marlborough Public Library.

R02 refers to the Southborough document setting up the organization of Minute Men from the Militia, and signed by the Minute Men. The document is dated 20 March 1775. This document has been used to establish the spelling of names with conflicting spellings; however, the notation (X) after R02 indicates that the man just made his mark and that the spelling might not be correct. A copy of this document is currently in the possession of the Historic Research Committee of the Southborough Companies of Militia and Minute.

R03 refers to Historical Sketches Concerning the Town of Southborough, Mass., and Other Papers, Written by Dea. Peter Fay. R03-55 refers to page 55 of this booklet. The original booklet is available at the Marlborough Public Library. It has been reprinted in 1972 and is also available from members of the Southborough Companies of Militia and Minute.

C followed by two numbers refer to a xeroxed copy of one or more town records. The number identifies the specific copy. These numbered copies are currently in the possession of the Historic Research Committee of the Southborough Companies of Militia and Minute.

Some of the Southborough Town Record Books have been xeroxed by the Historic Research Committee of the Southborough Companies of Militia and Minute, and the copies are currently in their possession. Notations "Book____, Page____" refer to these records, and identifies the first mention of a man's rank in the town records.

Hudson's History of Marlborough, Massachusetts published in 1862 has also been used as a reference. It is available at the Marlborough Public Library.
